SPOTLIGHT ON SPARKLING SHIRAZ

The quintessentially Australian wine synonymous with Seppelt; Sparkling Shiraz came to life in the 1880s and to fame a decade later when Hans Irvine employed Frenchman Charles Pierlot to first produce the 'méthode traditionnelle' style. Half a century later, Seppelt took the wine show circuit by storm with this unique style – and has not looked back.

A perennial CellarDoor.co member favourite and lauded by the critics, Seppelt's flagship Show Sparkling continues to set the global benchmark to this day with its iconic status and countless accolades. Showing that Seppelt truly are the masters of the style, their Original Sparkling Shiraz NV was recently awarded Tyson Stelzer's 2019 Sparkling Wine of the Year under $30.

"The perennial go-to for affordable Sparkling Shiraz, Original captures the black pepper, satsuma plum and black cherry elegance of Victoria and supports it with masterfully handled, finely structured tannins, beautifully integrated dark chocolate oak and well-gauged dosage. It concludes bright, long, creamy and joyous. Now a non-vintage blend and oaked for the first time, never has Original upheld the effortless calm and spicy black fruit integrity of the house with more finesse... Bravo." 94 points Tyson Stelzer

Sparkling Shiraz is a wine for all occasions – from a festive showpiece to relaxing alfresco evenings with creamy blue cheese, dark chocolate desserts, and even pizza. What could be better than the combination of a chilled bottle of oak-aged Shiraz bursting with flavour and fine bubbles on a summer's afternoon by the barbeque? Not much - it's the Australian way.

WE HOPE YOU ENJOY OUR ICON RED COLLECTION.
