Wolf Blass Platinum and Black Label wines are among the most revered in the world and are both the most sought-after upon each vintage release. Inside this box you will find the 2021 Platinum Label Medlands Vineyard Shiraz as well as the 2019 and 2018 Black Label releases – each a strong vintage reflected in the quality of the wines before you. The remaining three wines are from the member-favourite Grey label with immediate approachability yet each having the legs for the next decade or two of careful cellaring. We trust you'll enjoy these six wines and we encourage you to share them with your nearest and dearest. If you would like to opt-out of this year's dispatch, please email or call to inform us. Enjoy!"

WOLF BLASS Platinum Label Medlands Vineyard Shiraz 2021

The Region: Barossa Valley, SA

The Aromatics: Found down the dark end of the colour spectrum, we see aromas of black cherry and blackcurrant that express both terroir and variety, with undertones of tobacco and wild herbs.

The Flavours: Wolf Blass' prized Medlands Vineyard returned exceptional quality and highly concentrated fruit from a sensational 2021 vintage. The wine displays a palate of plush, opulent fruit and a fine, layered structure. It is uniformly rich and elegant, with a finesse derived from spicy French oak.

The Longevity: Enjoy now, or cellar to 2045 and beyond.

We love this wine with: Rack of lamb with grilled radicchio.

RRP $200

WOLF BLASS Black Label Cabernet Shiraz Malbec 2019

The Region: Multi-regional, SA

The Aromatics: The aromas are sublimely layered initially showing off blackberry, blackcurrant and dark plum, before leading you to bittersweet chocolate, roasted coffee beans and hints of toasted nut.

The Flavours: Early ripening and again low yields delivered fruit at a supreme level of intensity. The palate is complex and mouth-filling, finding a path of refined balance that presents generous dark berry fruit, and savoury secondary flavours of spice, coffee and cedary oak.

The Longevity: Enjoy now, or cellar to 2042 and beyond.

We love this wine with: Roast beef rib with horseradish and Yorkshire pudding.

RRP $130

WOLF BLASS Black Label Cabernet Shiraz 2018

The Region: Multi-regional, SA

The Aromatics: Rich and full, it immediately fills you with heady aromas of fruits of the forest, plum pudding, and high percent cacao dark chocolate. There's a distant wave of roasted nuts and a sense of 'Christmas in July' around it.

The Flavours: A generous palate is balanced with dark berry fruits, Ecuadorian ground coffee and a judicious use of oak. There is a persistence of flavour that flows alongside long, smooth and chocolatey tannins.

The Longevity: Enjoy now, or cellar to 2040 and beyond.

We love this wine with: Slow cooked ox cheek with a tray of root farm vegetables and French mustard.

RRP $130

WOLF BLASS Grey Label Langhorne Creek Cabernet Shiraz 2022

The Region: Langhorne Creek, SA

The Aromatics: A rich and fruit-full nose of black cherry and cassis, further complexed by subtle mineral notes and savoury oak.

The Flavours: A cool end to the growing season helped maintain natural acidity and pave a path for full flavour development. Subtle spice intermingles with complex regional notes of chocolate and eucalypt. This is a wine of great length, finesse and fruit presence.

The Longevity: Enjoy now, or cellar up to 2032.

We love this wine with: Chargrilled quail with a fennel and goats cheese salad.

RRP $35

WOLF BLASS Grey Label McLaren Vale Shiraz 2022

The Region: McLaren Vale, SA

The Aromatics: Enthralling with ripe berry aromatics and blood plums, supported by fruits of the forest chocolate and whiffs of tomato vine leaf.

The Flavours: A cool season allowed the fruit to develop exceptionally with flavours of blueberry, blackberry and liquorice, all neatly packaged with warming spice at the edge and gentle but forthright tannins.

The Longevity: Enjoy now, or cellar up to 2032.

We love this wine with: Whole roasted duck with a star anise and Pedro Ximénez glaze.

WOLF BLASS Grey Label Adelaide Hills Chardonnay 2023

The Region: Adelaide Hills, SA

The Aromatics: Classic Adelaide Hills aromatic character with white stone fruit, nectarine and peach, flint stone and nougat, joined by well-balanced and integrated malolactic complexity.

The Flavours: The season opened perfectly and continued without deviation, allowing for a slow even development of flavours. Delicate yet powerful, this Chardonnay offers a bright core of grapefruit and white nectarine, with a flinty edge that adds further depth and intrigue.

The Longevity: Enjoy today, or cellar up to 2031.
