

Coldstream Hills

The Hills: By Coldstream Hills

Pinot Noir Chardonnay

Established by James and Suzanne Halliday in 1985, Coldstream Hills is synonymous with elegance, finesse and great length of flavour. Coldstream Hills prides itself for having access to exceptional vineyards, with each vineyard providing a range of unique characteristics to the wines.

With a lifted bouquet of fresh lemon, green apples, brioche and macadamia, this elegant Pinot Noir Chardonnay has a fine mineral acidity and a soft, creamy texture with a long, crisp finish.

Winemaker Comments Andrew Fleming

Grape Variety

Pinot Noir & Chardonnay

Peak Drinking

Enjoy while young and fresh.

Food Matching

Perfect with natural oysters, or strawberries with mascarpone.

Colour

Pale straw with a delicate bead.

Bouquet

A lifted bouquet of fresh lemon and green apples with hints of brioche and macadamia.

Palate

A fresh, elegant palate with bright lemon curd and toasted brioche flavours enhanced by a fine mineral acidity that provides backbone and finesse. A soft, creamy texture with a long, crisp finish.