

DEVIL(ISH) CHARDONNAY

Devil(ish) is inspired by the wilderness of Tasmania and is dedicated to supporting the ongoing conservation of this pristine location and the unique and wonderful creatures that call Tassie home, including the iconic Tasmanian Devil.

Devil(ish) is proud to support the conservation efforts in Tasmania. A donation to Conservation Volunteers Australia is made from every bottle purchased.

Visit conservationvolunteers.com.au for details on their Tasmanian conservation programs, as well as their work throughout Australia

Tasting notes

Colour – Pale straw

Nose – At once, showing lovely nutty, creamy complexity in unison with white stone fruits (peach) and poached pear. Closer scrutiny shows lovely characters of cashew nut, soft almond nougat and crème caramel all arising from careful and precise yeast lees stirring (batonnage), finishing with beautifully integrated lightly toasted French oak.

Palate – White stone fruits (peach flesh) ensue amid subtle sweet Gala apple. Very flavoursome, soft and generous with layers of creamy texture. Rich and succulent with an enchanting note of Italian custard filled pastry. A delightful full flavoured wine with a supporting fine and soft, mineral acidity adding to the long finish.

Best drinking now and over the next 3 years.

