

squealing pig mid pinot noir

tasting notes:

colour

This little pig poured a ruby red glass of pinot noir.

nose

This little pig went wee, wee, wee as they sniffed ~~invigoratingly fragrant~~ delicious aromas of spice, red current and cherry.

palate

With a balanced palate and smooth finish this little pig is a light, nimble-hoofed drop. Carrying bursting flavours of cherry and spice and balanced with soft tannins, this mid-strength pinot noir is ~~categorically delectable~~ simply delicious. The perfect mid-week match.

cellaring

With no cellaring required this cracking mid strength is ready to go whenever the moment strikes.

technical information

This little pig is from Victoria, Australia
