

Fickle
MISTRESS

MARLBOROUGH
PINOT NOIR

Pinot Noir; she's a minx and a devil in disguise. With a perfume seductive and flavours alluring, she'll make you cry with joy and weep with pain. A prima donna in the vineyard she'll perform only when conditions are perfect; cool climates, slow ripening, but reward you with the performance of a lifetime.

Pinot Noir is fickle but she is charming, she is temperamental but bewitching. She is the Fickle Mistress.

"An enticing, generous mouthful with exquisite balance between natural acidity and fruit sweetness...Simply moreish."

VINEYARD REGION

Marlborough, New Zealand

GRAPE VARIETY

Pinot Noir

COLOUR

Bright cherry in colour, this wine is vibrant and inviting in appearance.

NOSE

The nose starts with intense strawberries and perfumed notes, with complex oak and spice characters unfolding.

PALATE

The palate is consistently tightly structured, yet generous and mouth-filling, with well integrated oak complexities supporting the primary fruit flavours. The rich palate finishes with a feminine elegance that is the hallmark of a truly balanced Pinot Noir.

11201 2018 13012
11201 2018 13012

11201 2018 13012